$2.00 PER BARREL.

Price of Lawrence County Oil Reported to Have Been Raised.

Good reports continue to come in about the oil well on Wm. Savage's farm near Fallsburg. It flowed 30 barrels Monday. Some of the estimates made on the well may prove to be too high, but there seems to be no doubt about it being a profitable strike.

Good prices are being paid for leases on surrounding territory and other wells will be drilled as soon as possible.

It is reported that the Standard will pay $2.00 per barrel for the oil from the Lawrence county field, beginning with this month's production. This is better than $1.35, which the company has been paying, but the quality makes the oil worth $2.50.

An engine has been ordered for the O'Brien well No. 1, on Three Mile. The well will be thoroughly tested as soon as possible. The pipe line company has refused to lay a line to this locality, but if the well should produce sufficiently to justify operating, a line will be laid by the Three Mile company to the railroad and the oil shipped in tank cars.

FIELDS WILL WORK THE ROADS.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The spectacle of a Kentucky member of Congress in jumpers working the roads just like an ordinary "farmhand" will be witnessed at the last of this week.

By proclamation of Gov. McCreary next Friday and Saturday will be the official "road days" in the Blue Grass State, and Representative W. J. Fields of the Ninth Kentucky District, whose home is at Olive Hill, Ky., will show his enthusiasm for good roads by shedding his coat and pitching in with the gangs of men who will work the roads of Carter county. In that county Representative Fields owns a large and valuable farm.

Fields today telegraphed to the foreman of his farm to be prepared to suspend all farming operations next Friday and Saturday and turn all the horses and men out to fix the roads.

This will be a force of seven men, and Fields will be the eighth. In addition the Fields farm will furnish three teams several plows and a road scraper.

APPOINTED BANK EXAMINER.

Mr. K. B. Cecil, of Kenova, has been appointed a national bank examiner and will enter upon the duties of his responsible position at once. Mr. Cecil is a native of Catlettsburg, where he has many relatives and is highly esteemed for his many sterling qualities.

Mr. Cecil has been prominent in banking circles in the tri-state region for several years. He is at present cashier of the First National Bank of Kenova, having held this position since the organization was founded.

He was strongly advocated for the place by Representative Fields, and his name was unusually large-sized piece of patronage to fall to the lot of a lone Congressman, and Mr. Fields feels good. In speaking of it Mr. Fields said: "Mr. Cecil had the finest line of endorsement possible, and at my request the Controller read them personally. They couldn't turn him down after that."

A Nice Little Dora Party.

On last Saturday evening Miss Kizzie Chyn Burns entertained about a dozen fair demurettes of the younger set from about seven thirty to late bedtime. The diversion was flinch and the scalloped oysters, fruit salad and ice, which followed the games were most satisfying. It was a very pleasant occasion.

REV. NORMAN PALMER.

The various congregations of Louisa will hold a union service at the Baptist church on Sunday morning next, at which time they will be addressed by the Rev. Norman Palmer, President of the Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky.

For Mrs. J. H. Reynolds.

One of the most delightful of the season social functions was the flinch party given on Saturday afternoon last by Mrs. M. S. Burns for her sister, Mrs. James H. Reynolds. The player-queens numbered sixteen, but other ladies, those who do not play the popular game, were there so that the cozy parlor and library, arranged as one spacious apartment, were comfortable with about the proper number of handsome and handsomely gowned women. No horrid men dared even approach the charmed precincts. The games were continued to the hour of dusk when refreshment of the sort which afforded exquisite pleasure were served, tastefully and abundantly. It was a varied repast, each one of the viands, from start to finish, being most delicious. But one cloud came across the brightness of the occasion, and that was the absence, because of sudden illness, of her in whose honor the affair was given.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Elmer Crabtree, who has been in the Lawrence county jail for some time, awaiting trial for breaking into the store of the Louisa Furniture Co., has "squealed," so it is said, and as a result Clyde Welch and Kinzel Arnett, both of Two Mile, and a boy named Adkins were arrested Thursday by Marshal Muncy and Lindsey liars and lodged in jail. They are charged with helag of the party that committed the burglary.

WOMEN MAY VOTE

For Superintendent of Schools is the Decision of Court of Appeals.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 16.—Women of Kentucky may vote for County School Superintendent. The Court of Appeals to-day overruled a motion by County Clerk J. H. Crook, of Anderson-co., to dissolve an injunction granted Mrs. Wallace M. Bartlett by the Anderson Circuit Court requiring him to provide separate ballots for women in the November election. The court held that the suffrage provision of the Act of 1912, giving women the right to vote in common school elections, included County School Superintendents.

The court said: "The Co. Board of Education virtually occupies the place formerly filled by School Trustees, and yet it seems evident that as women have the right to vote for School Trustees, they would also have the right to vote for other school officers who take the place of School Trustees, although called by another name, invested with larger powers and elected by the county and not the district."

The foregoing from the highest court in the States settles a very important question, and it will probably materially affect the vote for County Superintendents throughout the entire State. Women who desire to vote on November 4th may do so without any annoyance whatever. A separate ballot will be provided for them, and to vote all they have to do is to give their names to the election clerk, get a ballot from him, go into a booth and mark with a stamp the little square after the name of their candidate and return the folded ballot to the election officers. This is all there is to it.

To School Chain Holders.

In answer to many inquiries from parties throughout the county regarding the payment of claims for incidental expenses, I can only say that the Sheriff informs me that owing to the delay in getting the tax books in the hands of the deputies this year that he can not pay any money into the School Fund before Nov. 1st.

The County Board will meet Wednesday, Nov. 5, and claims will be paid immediately thereafter, provided they are properly filed with me before that time.

JAY O'DANIEL, Supt.

Miss Jettie Adams, daughter of Will Adams, of Dixon, Moore and Co., is quite ill of typhoid. So far, however, no dangerous symptoms have appeared.

FAIR AT LOUISA.

On last Thursday, Friday and Saturday a fair was held at Louisa, Ky., under the direction of the citizens of Lawrence county, Ky., and Wayne county, W. Va.

The fair was well attended and was a pronounced success. Many prizes were awarded to farmers for fine specimens of live stock.

Among the Wayne countians who received prizes for their exhibits were: P. H. Ingram, best colt, $8 plow; J. W. Booth, best white face bull, one barrel flour; Alcinius Lakin, best brood mare and colt, Stetson but; D. H. Frazier, second best brood mare, (prize not reported); W. E. Plymale, best mule colt, (prize not reported.)

This speaks well for Wayne county farmers, for it shows that they are awake to the necessity of raising a good grade of live stock. Doubtless several other prizes could have been captured by them, but many of our best farmers did not even know of the fair, and so had no specimens of their stock on exhibition.

It has been suggested that these two counties compete next year for prizes. This, we think is a good idea. We would suggest, if this be done, that each of the counties hold a fair of its own, and then that the two counties hold a one day fair together. This combined fair could be held alternately at Louisa and Wayne, one year at one place and the next year at the other.—Wayne News.

THE PIKEVILLE MEETING.

The meeting of the Big Sandy Educational League in Pikeville on Friday and Saturday of last week was numerous and enthusiastically attended. Jay O'Daniel, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, of Horseford, Miss Mario Roberts, of Cadmus, Miss Bertha Conley, of Louisa, Otto Martin, of Louisa, Harmon O'Daniel, of Hulet, Earl Thompson, of Jattle, Grover Daniel, of Potter. Miss Roberts was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Sinclair Roberts.

The attendance on these occasions is usually very large and much business of interest to the fraternity is transacted.

ARBOR DAY.

November 6th Set Apart by Gov. McCreary for Tree Planting.

I, James B. McCreary, Governor of the Commonwealth, do issue this proclamation, designating Thursday, November 6, 1913, as Arbor Day for the Commonwealth of Kentucky and request its observance by the planting of trees and such other exercises as may be deemed proper.

The attention of all the people, and especially the teachers and pupils of all the colleges and schools, is called to the importance of planting trees. Every proper effort should be made for the reawakening of our forests.

In the last decade there has been great development along forestry lines in the United States. The inauguration of forest management in the national forests, the activity of various states in public forestry, and the interest of private owners in the tree-growing, have resulted in marked improvement in every thing connected with forestry. There are now a number of colleges in the United States where forestry is included in the curriculum. In the last few years there has been a constantly increasing activity in the forestry of the various states, and now thirty States have some kind of organization for forestry work.

I call upon the people to give more attention to the observance of Arbor Day in Kentucky than has been given heretofore. I not only desire the students of all the colleges to take an active interest in the setting out of trees, but pupils of every common school in the State could render immense service by each of them setting out one tree on Arbor Day.

School house yards, home yards, public roads, pastures and fields should be beautified with trees. Our natural forests are diminishing and we must not only save what is left of the forests, but we must re-forest the cut-over, the burnt-over, and the unforested districts of the State.

JAS. B. MCCREARY, Governor.

GOOD ROADS.

Don't forget to try to make them so to-day and tomorrow. The weather and the condition of the soil are just ideal for working, and every man in the county who is physically able to do so should make prompt personal response to the appeal of the Governor and the County Judge by making a full hand on this occasion. Missourians did more than two million dollars worth of work on their good roads days. Let Lawrence county do its part in making Kentucky's showing three millions.

PAINFULLY HURT.

Mr. David French, a member of the Valuation Survey Corps, now in camp at Richardson, was painfully hurt on Tuesday last by falling between a couple of ties while walking a trestle not far from that place. He was badly bruised on one hip and elbow and the short ribs on his right side were injured so that he will be unable to work for several days. The C. & O. surgeon at Louisa attended to the injury and sent Mr. French to his home at Kenova.

Mrs. M. S. Burns entertained the flinch club Thursday.

Norfolk & Western Railway Exhibits

At the National Conservation Exposition at Knoxville, Tenn., the Norfolk & Western Railway, through its agricultural and industrial department, has installed and is maintaining two large exhibits, one in the Land Building and the other in the Mineral Building.

The exhibit in the Land Building is considered one of the most artistic and attractive of its character ever installed at any exposition. The space occupied is 20x31 feet, having an elevated base, surrounding which are arranged the different products found in their territory. This covers agriculture, commerce, mining and manufacturing.

In the Mineral Building an economic exhibit of the minerals found along the Norfolk & Western Railway has been installed. This occupies some 700 square feet of floor space, and about 2000 specimens are on display, such as coal, iron, manganese, gypsum, mica and numerous other minerals, both in the crude and finished state.

HAD SWALLOWED A NEEDLE.

On Friday last Paul, the three years old son of Edgar McClure, of Chapman, swallowed a needle. The alarmed parents brought the child to the hospital, where it was examined, but no trace of the needle could be found. It may have buried itself in the tissues, to make its appearance possibly years later in some remote part of the body. No operation was performed.

THE SPELLING CONTEST

At the County Fair Was too Much for Everybody.

Below is the list of words furnished by Mr. Charles Flanery, of Webbville, to be spelled by the contestants in the contest for his prize of ten dollars offered at the late county fair. No contestant spelled all the one hundred words, hence none captured the award. Of the sixteen who entered the ring Miss Mollie Roberts, of Busseyville, heads the list, with 88 words correctly spelled. She is followed by Miss Nora Roberts, of Busseyville, with 85. Mrs. Sam Welch, of Ft. Gay, 76. These are the three highest. The lowest number of correctly spelled words was 36.

ECHO FROM THE FAIR.

At a meeting of the Lawrence County Agricultural Society, held October 18th in Louisa, John L. Vaughan was elected president, and John G. Burns, secretary. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, that the thanks of the Society be extended to all who contributed, in any way, to the success of this first meeting. Especially would we thank the wholesale dealers: Ben Williamson & Co., Singer Mfg. Co., Hagen, Ratcliff & Co., Sebon, Stevenosn & Co., Gwinn Bros. & Co., Patton Milling Co., Federal Chemical Co., Crump & Field, Kitchhea, Whit & Co., D. J. Burchett, Jr., Ballard & Ballard, Big Sandy Milling Co., A. Mims & Co., Ashland Milling Co., Buhr, Pfaff & Co., Alms & Doepke Co., John Shillito Co., Watts, Ritter & Co., Baker & Co., Chase & Sanburn Co., Pogue Milling Co., Moch, Ber-man & Co., Dixon, Moore & Co., Wolf Bros. Co., J. McCoach & Co., Kenton Baking Powder Co., Queen Mfg. Co., Jeff Newberry, Gilbert Grocery Co., Hampton Grocery Co., Ohio Valley Mill & Supply Co., Louis Stix & Co., Croft Notion & Co., Culter & Selp Co., Mayer, Wise & Kitchea, who so generously contributed goods that enabled us to offer premiums of greater value than we could have offered in cash, and we would urgently request our farmers and merchants in their dealings to prefer them in their patronage.

To the ladies, Mrs. Vic Prichard, Mrs. J. H. Reynolds, Mrs. Robert Hartman, Mrs. Jack Collinsworth, Mrs. W. T. Kane, Mrs. G. W. Wroten and Mrs. Mary B. Horton, who so faithfully assisted in making the ladies department a success.

To Mrs. Wyssor, Mrs. Patrick and Mrs. Shunk, Messrs. Daniels, Patrick, Lear, Dr. Moore, Dr. Gambill, Dr. Lockwood, Deskins, Davidson, Harris, Geiger Burchett and Prof. Carmody, who acted as judges.

To the Louisa Brass Band for their most excellent music.

To Jailer Al Hays and County Judge Boggs for the use of the court house and grounds.

To our friends from Wayne county, for their co-operation and exhibits, which ought to impress our own farmers that in live stock they would have to watch out or most of the premiums would go across the bridge.

We feel that in justice to those who were exhibitors this year that from the statements made by the great number who brought nothing to exhibit but had so much better at home than was there that if these parties bring in what they have next year (which they will not as talk is cheaper) those of this year will be left out. However we will all take our chances again next year and let the judges decide.

The success of this year warrants all in saying that we will have a fair in 1914 and hope to have a better place for the boys to test the speed of their horses. As a society we congratulate ourselves in having made a success in a small beginning the first year and feel that we are justified in looking forward to a larger and livelier interest in 1914.

We desire to especially thank Prof. Carmody and Prof. Bryant for their presence and assistance with words of information always so cheerfully given. Also the Agricultural Ex. Station for the exhibit made by them and request that next year we have the exhibit with the same parties to explain it.

We also wish to thank Mr. Flanery for his liberal offer to a spelling class which, with the assistance of Mr. Ferguson, of West Va., made the closing hour of our meeting one of so much interest and amusement that those who were present will never forget.

We regret that Commissioner Newnam and President Barker could not be with us and assure them that if they will come over and drink from the Big Sandy water and our hospitality that they will return each succeeding year.

MARRIED IN CLERK'S OFFICE.

On Thursday, Oct. 23, in the office of the Lawrence County Clerk, by the Rev. S. F. Reynolds, Miss Jane McComas to Thomas McKinsey.

Miss Mollie Chaffin very pleasantly entertained the "Gne Wes" club on last Tuesday evening.

POLITICAL.

Points of Interest to Voters About the November Election.

FOR W. M. JUSTICE.

Editor Big Sandy News.
Louis, Ky.

I see in the columns of your paper the name of a man who is one of the nominees for County Judge, I feel proud to say to the voters of Lawrence county that I have been acquainted with this man since he was a boy, and know the adverse circumstances under which he labored to make the success that he has made. He, in the language of some distinguished writer, began his career at the bottom of the ladder and by his honesty, and good judgment, has achieved what he is today. I know him as a business man, as a neighbor and as a judge of the proud city of Louisville, once my home, of which I am yet proud. I have sat in his courts and have noticed his impartial rulings and the good and just, fair and impartial judgments rendered by him. This makes him a noble timber for a Judge of your county. The man who makes a success for himself, is the kind of a man that can make a success for the public, and feeling that the good voters of Lawrence county know of this man and his standing as a moral, a Sunday school and church going man, and his business qualification, that there is no doubt but what you will cast your vote at the coming election Nov. 4, 1913 for him and that you will ever be proud.

The name I refer to is W. M. Justice, one among the best citizens of Lawrence county.

BEN CASSADY.

JOHN McDYER.

"The Good Roads Candidate" for Representative, stands for the following:

1. He favors the repeal of the law whereby men are warned out to work six days on the public roads.
2. He is opposed to a further increase of a county levy.

From the year 1812 to 1850 a tax was collected from the whole State and the money spent on so called state roads in the rich "Blue Grass" counties of Kentucky.

The records in the State Auditor's office show there was collected and spent in this way over $10,000,000 besides the stocks taken in certain turnpikes, which was afterwards given to these same counties in which these roads were located.

3. He favors the return of this money to our mountain counties by a State aid plan.

By this State aid plan, Lawrence county would pay in about $1300.00 and receive in round numbers $10,000.00, Boyd county would pay in about $4,000.00 and receive $12,000.00. These sums added to the present county levy for road purposes, would give Lawrence county $18,000.00 and to Boyd county $47,000.00, these sums, supplemented by like amount from the appropriation of $25,000,000.00 by our National Government and we have for Lawrence county $36,000.00 and for Boyd county $95,000.00 quite a nice road fund compared with what we have been having.

Some will say: The National Government is not in the road business, but she is. The counties of Mason, Fleming, Bath and Montgomery are building county roads at this moment under this very plan, save the State Aid plan as mentioned above.

Now my friends, if, on the 4th day of November, when you go to the polls, you will brush aside the political mist that blinds the better judgment and common reason of many a good man and place your X in the square behind the name of JOHN McDYER, the only candidate who publicly makes a declaration for Good Road laws, you shall soon realize all the blessings enjoyed by those living in a community blessed by Good Roads.

SOLID FOR THE PARTY.

I wish to inform my friends over the county that I am for the nominees of the Democratic party in every particular. It has come to me that some one is of the opinion that I had feelings against William Justice, nominee for County Judge, but I am ready to ride my horse over this county for the entire party nominees, and proclaim from the house tops my full support of Mr. Justice, who is a qualified self made man for the judgeship.

JNO. HUGHES, Osce, Ky.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAWRENCE COUNTY.

As the election is drawing near, let us get wrapped up in the spirit of co-operation, for it is as old as the human race. Back in the realms of the far distant past, as far as the historian and scientist have penetrated, there is simple evidence of the beginning of co-operative or mutual thought among the prehistoric tribes, and in all species of animal or plant life, those divisions or branches have survived and progressed where the largest amount of co-operation has been in evidence.

In the history of human endeavor the idea of co-operation has suggested itself in proportion to and on account of the evils and hardships the individual was subjected to, and when these evils became general in their application, the method of co-operatively combatting or overcoming the social evil automatically suggested itself. So the loveliest of the ancient lowly conceived the idea, a bit at a time of the necessity of co-operation or unity of action. It is this spirit boys that has blazed the way for everything that has ever been inaugurated that made for greater liberty and greater comfort for mankind.

Now, to my defeated opponents let us get together for good and march right upon the firing line and stay there shoulder to shoulder until the Rev. M. A. Hay carries the Democratic flag to victory for four years. We read of the seven great wonders of the world, let us show to the people of Lawrence county there are seven little wonders in old Lawrence county.

No doubt all have read the lesson about the Seven Sticks, easy to break one but very hard to break the whole seven. Boys, as we are odd in number let us get together and organize ourselves into a campaign committee and work for the good of our party.

Victory seems in our grasp, but over confidence has lead to defeat and we don't want to repeat our action as on other occasions but be in the fight till the last minute and I am sure we shall carry this county the largest it has ever been carried.

With the best wishes for the Democratic party, I am, yours truly, JIM SPARKS.

STARTING THE DAIRY HERD.

In Kentucky many farmers are inquiring as to the advisability of replacing beef cattle with dairy cattle on the farm. To such inquiries we answer that where good markets for milk, butter, or cheese are available, and where one will go into the business with the determination to stick to it and master the many details, the farm income will be materially increased by the change.

To those who are just embarking in the business we would offer the following suggestions in the light of more than 20 years personal experience in practical dairy farming and from observations of the successes and failures of scores of dairymen in this and other states.

First, look well to your market. Your location will determine whether the product shall be milk, cream, butter or cheese, or whether re-tailed in a local market or shipped to a city dealer. If the farm is located several miles from a market or shipping point, butter, cream or cheese should prove most profitable, because of the lower cost of hauling the reduced bulk. Butter of a high quality is being produced on many farms in the state at present and such butter is in good demand at prices equal to or greater than creamery butter. Sweet milk and sweet cream usually afford better returns than butter and cheese, provided the dairy is close to a good retail market or to a railroad where quick shipment can be made to a good market.

Second, use care in selecting cows. The beginner should start with good common or grade cows which can usually be picked up in the neighborhood at prices ranging from $50 to $65. Mate these cows to a pure bred bull of one of the dairy breeds. The value of this bull depends upon whether his mother and his sire's mother were large milk and butter cows, also upon the dairy merit of the daughters of his sire and grand sire, and of his dam and grand dam; also of his sisters. Frequently bull calves of this description can be bought from breeders and dairymen at very reasonable figures.

The heifer calves obtained by mating such a bull on good heavy milking cows of common breeding are almost certain to develop into high producing dairy cows. By continuing the use of good bulls from selected cows, improvement will be continuous and sure. A herd can thus be developed on the farm at a small cost.

Third, we wish to emphasize that for the beginner, pure-bred females are not necessary. Such high priced stock should not be used until one first learns to handle grade cows successfully, and is convinced that he has the capacity and aptitude to attain results in breeding, and has the ability of salesmanship, and a good demand for his pure-bred stock. Few men have the ability to make a financial success of breeding. One should not go into the business. One should grow into it.

While for the beginner pure-bred females are not necessary, the use of the pure-bred and well bred bull is absolutely necessary to attain best results. Starting in the business with grade cows, a registered cow may be added from time to time as circumstances permit. These should be heavy producers and from good milking strains, otherwise they will give no better results than scrubs. In fact there are a great many scrubs and misfits among registered cattle. Avoid the use of such cows.

By pursuing the method outlined above, a herd of high producing registered dairy cattle may be assembled at a very moderate cost. Such is the method sanctioned by common sense and good business judgement. Hundreds of dairymen all over the country have followed it and have attained marked success.

W. D. NICHOLLS, Asst. Professor of Dairying.

A press telegram from Maysville says the chestnut crop is almost a total failure. The abundance of "chocauts" handed around every Sunday afternoon in the hotels by crowds waiting for "16 to run," throws doubt on the accuracy of this statement.

THE TARIFF AND THE COST OF LIVING.

"In its national platform the Democratic party declared, 'We . . . charge that excessive prices result in a large measure from the high tariff laws . . . and we assert that no substantial relief can be secured for the people until import duties on the necessities of life are materially reduced. . . .'"

"In fulfillment of the pledge implied in this declaration the new tariff law includes the following provisions, calculated to have a favorable effect on the market basket of the ultimate consumer, otherwise the average man."

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in ill ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter time with a coal stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic oxide gas. This blood, or lack of which lacks the red blood corpuscles, in anemia; people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Is a blood cleanser and alterative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus builds the body in manufacture rich red blood which feeds the heart, nerves—brain and organs of the body. The organs work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and vigorous instead of tired, weak and faint. Nowadays you can obtain Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery tablets, as well as the liquid form from all medicine dealers, or tablets by mail, prepaid in $1 or 50c size. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE.

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Dandruff right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dandruff tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowledge's Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

THOMAS LOVELL LEWIS, regular Democratic nominee for Representative, 96th Legislative district, Johnson and Martin counties.

Newton Lord and Miss Jeanie Helper were married in Tennessee the other day and the local paper got into serious trouble by heading the notice "Lord—Helper."

Every candidate on the Democratic ticket, from Representative to Justice of the Peace, is worthy of the position he seeks. Let's try a change for the next four years. Certainly something for the betterment of conditions needs to be done.

J. Stoddard Johnston, aged 80, former associate editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, died in St. Louis recently. Death was due to hardening of the arteries. Mr. Johnston was the Democratic nominee for governor of Kentucky in 1875, but was defeated. He was Adjutant General of Kentucky from 1871 to 1875, and Secretary of State from 1875 to 1879. For many years he was Democratic State Chairman of Kentucky.

William Sulzer was removed from the office of Governor of New York by the Court of Impeachment by a vote of 43 to 12, two members not voting. Martin H. Glynn, Lieutenant Governor, was sworn in as Sulzer's successor. The verdict of the court was that Sulzer was guilty of falsification, perjury and an attempt to suppress evidence against him. Mr. Sulzer issued a statement attacking the court and Tammany Hall. He was not disqualified from holding office.

Murphy has won his fight, and, in a way, has done New York a service. Now let the State serve itself by doing for Murphy.

POST PRICE INCREASED.

The Big Sandy News has been clubbing with the Cincinnati Post at $2.50 per year, but notice has been received that the Post has increased its price 50 cents per year. The two papers will now cost $3 per year.

Some of the Candidates.

A. J. Garred has had thirty years experience in the courts and is therefore qualified to look after the interests of the county in the important office of County Attorney.

Rev. M. A. Hay deserves your support for County Court Clerk. He is the type of man who can be depended upon to serve the people faithfully. He is a native of the upper Blaine section of this county, which has been favored with very few offices.

If you want your county claims to be worth one hundred cents on the dollar vote for R. A. Stoue for Sheriff. He will turn over the money promptly and thus make the credit of the county good. You have tried him and know what he will do. Think how important it is to have your tax money handled in a satisfactory manner.

If Uncle Al. Hays, our Jailer, received pay for all his "boarders" he would be able to accumulate some money. But he doesn't. He has fed more people for nothing, and does it more freely than any man who ever lived in Louisa. His generosity has made him famous and that is why almost everybody gladly votes for him. He doesn't make much money but he enjoys the fellowship of his friends as much as any man in the world.

Look Out For This.

It is reported that just previous to the election there will be some circulars distributed, the object of which is to injure R. A. Stoue, candidate for Sheriff of Lawrence county. This is to warn the citizens to be on their guard against such an attack. There is nothing that can be truthfully said against his official record that is not to his credit. All he wants in case of such an attack is a chance to prove its falsity, and any fair-minded citizen will concede that right before being influenced by a statement designed to injure him. (Adv.-2t.)

STILL IN THE RING.

It having been reported by letters and otherwise throughout the county that I am no longer a candidate on the Progressive or Bull Moose ticket for Representative from Boyd and Lawrence counties, and that I have ordered Co. Clerk Mont Holt to take my name from the ballot, I take this means to brand said report as false and malicious. I am still a candidate, and will be until the close of the polls on November 4th. (Adv.)

T. B. BILLUPS.

Platform of Taylor B. Billups.

Progressive Nominee for Legislature of the 98 district endorses the Progressive Platform from start to finish.

I recognize the vital importance of good roads, and should I be elected, I pledge myself to foster their extension in every way, but I think the first thing that should be done is to lift the debt off the State and re-adjust the taxes, so the rich man will be compelled to pay his taxes in the same ratio as the poor man.

I am in favor of an impartial primary law which will give all parties the same right and privileges, an anti-pass law, and a measure for the protection of laborers, also the repeal of the dog tax law.

I would deem it my duty to vote for establishing a department of labor, and teaching of agriculture in the schools, and the use of mechanical power on the farm.

I am also in favor of all other good laws which interest the people of Kentucky.

On these principles, and the desirability of uniting the progressive forces of the State; I appeal for the support of all good voters of this district without regard to previous political affiliation. (Adv.)

RESOLUTIONS.

To the officers and members of Arman Lodge 233 I. O. O. F. Borderland, W. Va.:

We, the undersigned, beg to submit the following report upon the death of Brother L. C. Clark, 21 day of Sept. 1913:

At Hurly hospital at Hurly, Va.
whereas the great God of heaven above has seen fit in his great wisdom to call from our sister's home a kind and loving husband, There is no father to care for the four little ones. There is no father to call the children home or to hear the call of father. We must all remember it is a solemn thought to know that we have no father to hear our call, so we must all lend a helping hand to aid the little ones left behind. Wherefore, when we assemble to transact such business as we think necessary, we must remember there is a vacant chair in our brother's home, yet we know that all that live must die, and we believe he has gone to rest from the burdens of life. And we resolve our heartfelt sympathy to the widow and children and friends in this their hour of sorrow.

We resolve the charter be draped for thirty days and all members wear hedges of mourning for thirty days.

We resolve that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes and a copy sent to his lodge, Lare Elk No. 358 I. O. O. F. one copy to his family, one copy to Arman Lodge No. 233 I. O. O. F., one copy to Williamson paper, one to Big Sandy News at Louisa, Ky.

Yours in F. L. and T.

MR. FLANNERY'S LETTER.

Webbville, Ky., Oct. 21, 1913.
Big Sandy News,
Louisa, Ky.

Gentlemen:—
I desire to report through your columns the results of the one hundred word spelling contest which was about the last thing pulled off at Lawrence county's big fair. I also wish to state that I am very much elated over the good showing made at the Fair by Lawrence county's patriotic citizens and hope to see the association grow into a self supporting organization of which the citizens of Lawrence county will be proud, and not only strive to have as good a one next year, but to use ever effort to have a three times better one.

In my judgment this is the paramount steps toward bringing our county up to what it should have been, had its citizenship seen fit to do this in years gone by. A county fair does not only tend to bringing our county up to the front rank in live stock and other farm products, but it also tends to bringing about better roads, better churches and better schools as well, besides many other good things that is due the good people of Lawrence county, and all these things combined together is what it takes to constitute good citizenship, and why should Lawrence county not strive to place her citizenship on a higher plane? I have maintained for many years, that farmers should, when growing a piece of live stock, to grow one that would be most attractive to the other fellow. By doing this we never have any trouble in finding a buyer for same at much higher prices and better satisfied customers than do we when handling scrub stock, besides well bred stock always takes on more flesh from same amount of feed or pasture than the scrub stock, and why not rid ourselves of this inferior grade of stuff and replace it with a higher bred kind and be convinced that the well bred stuff is better than the scrub. I have been a lover of good live stock almost all my life (although not keeping as good grade as I should have kept) but expect to keep breed a much better class and not alone for the premiums offered by county fairs, but for the purpose of bringing more income to the farm and also to demonstrate the fact to the public that its more profitable to breed and grow high grade live stock, than low grade.

Another mistake we mountain farmers make, is keeping too much to the acre. The mountains keep more live stock to the acre than do the farmers of Central Ky., and other productive countries, that actually can produce about three times the amount to the acre compared to our soil in most any way, and this always means a loss of money to the farmers. It is very evident of course that we cannot grow as much good live stock and other products of the farm, as does Central Ky., and other more productive countries, but we can grow just exactly the same quality of stuff and sell it just as high as they do, and why not do this and show to the outside world that we are progressive too, and that our farm land is just three times more valuable than it has heretofore been rated. A great number of people are under the impression that premiums are the only thing to be considered at fairs. Now I think those who are of this opinion, should dismiss this from their minds, as it costs twice or three times as much to exhibit stock as the premiums amount to, even if you win some.

The cause is what I am interested in, and in order to make it plain and distinct and for fear some one might misjudge me and say that I was not sincere and in good faith regarding the above statement, why I am going to say right now that I will donate the amount of every premium which I won at the fair just past, to the same cause, to be used in organizing and erecting suitable grounds for holding one better next year. It is true of course that the premiums which are given are fascinating and bring about the sport of the game, while the cause is the thing to be most considered, and I believe every one who won premiums at the fair just past should be grateful enough to donate some back to the cause, and continue to do so until the organization crawls along and gets up on its feet sufficiently to carry its own burdens.

I believe with the aid of some of our neighbor West Virginia and Kentucky counties that we can after a time have as good a fair as some of the Blue Grass counties of our state, and think what would this mean for a county of the Big Sandy! Why somebody would say, Lawrence county's citizens have been away from home a time or two and while away found many good things that they were actually entitled to, and now that they are back with an ambition to have good things at home.

So let everybody put our shoulder to the wheel of progress and speed along and show to the outside world that we are alive to the issue.

I offered the spelling prize principally for the purpose of creating a rivalry among the younger class of people for good spellers and not because I had ten dollars to give away, (although would have paid the money had any one earned it.)

Most every one will agree with me that the young people, as well as the older ones are generally weak in this test.

I mean to offer the same prize to be competed for in a like manner at the fair next year, but hear in mind that you will only be allowed 25 minutes, the same basis as the United States Civil Service Commission allows for similar spelling.

Now you will have twelve long months to prepare in and you should coach yourselves to do the work in a rapid manner. This is a chance of all to gain and nothing to lose with you. And every young person should set out to win this prize. You have a long time to prepare for the contest and should you lose the prize, why you should come out a good speller which in the long run will be worth a dozen such prizes. School teachers who desire their pupils to make extra marks in spelling should offer prizes for this test as well as in other tests. If any one competing in the spelling contest desires their manuscript returned to them, they may write me to this effect.

I feel that all those competing in spelling contest did fairly well, considering the uproar and other disturbances which were going on at the time.

Thanking one and all to assist in having a better fair next year,
I am most respectfully,
CHAS. C. FLANNERY.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

Well No. 5 drilled by the Central Wayne Oil and Gas Co., came in last week a very strong gusher. This well is on the farm of C. M. Frayley and is the third and best gas well struck on his farm.—Wayne News.

The 77th annual session of the West Virginia Methodist Episcopal Conference, adjourned at Buckhannon Monday shortly after Bishop J. W. Hamilton read the appointments for the coming year. Fewer changes were made in the churches this year than in the past ten years. Practically none of the important charges were changed while the superintendents remain the same as last year. Fairmont was decided upon as the next meeting place, and the 78th session will convene at the First M. E. Church, in that city in next October.

The Rev. G. E. Richardson was appointed to the Ft. Gay charge.

A telegram was received by the authorities here this morning from Chief of Police W. O. Porter, of this city, that he had arrested near Spartanburg, South, Carolina, John Henderson, the negro who shot and killed Officer Albert Duty last Sunday. After scouring the mountains hereabouts for two or three days, the authorities despatched officers in every direction to apprehend the fugitive. Chief Porter went to South Carolina and wired here this morning that he had the right negro and his associates who were with him at the time. Up to this time there are no indications as to what course will be pursued by the authorities but it is thought that the prisoner will be brought to this city and lodged in our county jail.—Williamson News

At the present time we have 73 students enrolled in the College of Agriculture, as against 51 a year ago this time. We have 30 new men as against half that number last fall. We feel that this is a very satisfactory increase from a total of 20 students in agriculture in the fall of 1910. Although the enrollment is still relatively small, it is a very satisfactory increase, and there is no question but that a similar increase will occur in future years. The college is now fairly well organized as far as its faculty is concerned, and many of the departments are well equipped. During the past summer a new horse barn and a steer shed have been built, and the dairy barn has been practically rebuilt, giving facilities for better work in livestock, and a considerable amount of livestock has been purchased. Our men are chiefly interested in horticulture and animal husbandry. We have several men who are putting themselves through college, but we are unable to furnish steady employment to as many as we should like to. The college is very badly hampered for lack of suitable classrooms and laboratories, but more hampered by the lack of an adequate farm. I am sending you by this mail a copy of the last report of the State Board of Regents, which discusses this matter quite fully on page 22 and again on pages 56 and 60. The college has now gotten to the point where it must either have more land and suitable buildings or we shall not be able to develop much further.

The few graduates which we have had are making good, and are practically all in agricultural work.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man. Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theodor's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c.

Saturday night, Mrs. Elkanah Havens, of Phil's branch of Grassy, was accidentally burned to death at the home of her brother, Jack Barnett, on White Oak, whom she was visiting. Granville Mays, our informant, says that it was thought she had got up to smoke in the night and that in trying to light her pipe she fell in the fire. It is probable that she was stricken with apoplexy as she made no outcry, at least the family heard none. The latter theory is tangible from the statement of another that her father died under a fit of apoplexy.—Hazel Green Herald.

Marion Coburn, a Greenup county school teacher, who cut and almost fatally injured Woods Allen, of Old town, during some trouble on horse sale day at Greenup over a year ago and who was sentenced to serve from one to five years in the penitentiary, was pardoned last week by Gov. McCreary, after having served one year and one day of his sentence.

Mr. Coburn is a married man and has several children. He has always borne a good reputation and no doubt he has repented over and over again for his rash deed, done in the heat of passion. Mr. Allen, who was so seriously injured that he lingered for weeks between life and death, was one of the first to sign the petition asking the governor to release Coburn in order that he might be returned to his family.—Carter News.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 17.—An entire issue of 3,000 copies of the Jackson Times was taken from the press room of the paper and thrown into the Kentucky river here Thursday morning by unidentified persons. The papers were printed only on one side. The plant of the paper was not damaged.

The papers contained some warm political matter in behalf of the Democratic party, and a drastic article, marked advertisement, and signed by T. P. Cardwell, Republican candidate for County Judge.

Mr. Barnett, the business manager of the Times, said the article by Mr. Cardwell was taken as a regular advertising reader and was paid for in advance.

Republicans are contending that Democrats administered the baptismal ordinances to avoid the sending out of the Cardwell article and to perpetrate a report upon the Republicans that they had tried to prevent the circulation of the paper, which is Democratic and is making a hard fight for the election of the Democratic ticket, while the Democrats are charging the Republicans with destroying the papers to prevent the circulation of the Democratic articles.

Title to valuable coal property leased to the Majestic Colliers on Poplar creek branch of Tug river, in the Big Sandy Valley, was quitted in a suit decided by the Court of Appeals, affirming the Pike Circuit Court. In 1869 Michael and Matilda Mounts divided a large amount of property among their children, and gave or sold the property in question to Jackson's mounts, their son. He got in trouble with a man named Murphy in 1877 and deeded the property to his mother to avoid execution in a damage suit. She later, joined by her husband, executed deeds for the property to Jackson Mounts, but he had his mother execute another deed alone and recorded that one. The deed signed by both his parents was destroyed when his home burned a few years later.

After the development of the Eastern Kentucky coal field he leased the property to the collieries company, which built a railroad to it. Discovering that there was a cloud on the title by reason of the failure of his father to sign the deed, he set about to secure quit claim deeds from all the heirs. All signed but one, and then all joined in a suit to set aside their quit claim deeds and for partition of the property. Jackson Mounts claimed title by reason of conveyances and also by reason of adverse possession, and the petition of the heirs of Michael Mounts was dismissed.—Pike County News.

FROM TEXAS.

It's time to report again to the NEWS. We've had two long drouths this season. The first damaged small grain and corn and the second cotton and everything else. But the drouth was broken and we've had about two wet weeks, throwing corn gathering and cotton picking later than usual. However, the rain seems over at present and the cotton opening out nicely. I gathered a little over five hundred bushels corn off of about fourteen acres.

There is a very perceptible change of season here this the 12th of October. No frost yet and but little change of the leaves of the forests. Wheat drilled before the rain is up nicely.

We expect to have cold fingers before the cotton is all gathered this fall. I've now about 2 months and a half to gather my cotton and move, as renters give and take possession by the first of Jan.

Volunteer wheat and oats look fine. One man is talking of letting a piece of volunteer oats go through the winter to save seed in the spring as they have been known to go through the winter here. Winter oats does the best and weighs heaviest.

I have seen my first power engine plowing this fall. It was pulling two gangs of heavy disks.

Now if these items are worth publishing I may take a more definite subject next time. G. P. SALYER.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS.

Take "Pape's Diapepsin" and in 5 minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; hunch gases and acid and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

POULTRY FACTS.

ROOSTER LOWERS EGG YIELD

Interesting Tests Made at New York Experiment Station on Presence of Males in Flock.

The belief used to be general many years ago that hens would not lay without the presence of a male bird in the flock. And even today there are a few people that contend the male stimulates egg production to a greater or less extent. Men who have raised poultry for years still cling to this notion and persist in keeping a lot of males hanging about where only eggs are wanted.

The New York Experimental station made up four pens of pullets, two consisting of pure-bred stock and two of mixed stock. With one pen of each class cockerels were kept, while with the others none were allowed. The cockerels were put with the two pens two months before any began laying. Some pullets in each of the two pens in which no cockerels were put began laying a month before any in the two containing cockerels. The fowls were of the Asiatic breeds and rather persistent sitters. No attempt was made to discourage any of the hens from sitting, and there seemed to be no difference in the relative number of sitters in the contrasted pens. Of the cross-bred pullets the lot without males laid better throughout the season and also during the best egg season. Of the other lot the one without males began laying earlier and did better than the one with males during the first part of the season, but it fell slightly behind for the latter months, though during that period they kept even with the lot which was accompanied by males. It was thought that the vice of feather eating which broke out in this pen had much to do with the falling off in egg production.

From these experiments it would seem that the presence of males has a detrimental influence upon the egg yield. This is also the theory advanced by many in recent years, and it is now pretty generally accepted by prominent egg farmers.

HINTS ON DUCKS AND GEES

Newly Hatched Goslings Weigh About Four Ounces—Turkeys Are Slow at the Start.

A Pekin duckling weighs about two ounces when hatched and should take on weight as follows: Three to four weeks, 1 pound; six to eight weeks, 4 to 4½ pounds; and at ten weeks,

White China Geese.

5½ to 6 pounds. Ducklings should be marketed from nine to twelve weeks of age. After that they take on weight slowly, and it is not profitable to keep them longer than twelve weeks.

Geese grow about as rapidly as ducks. Allowance of course must be made for the original difference in size—newly hatched goslings weighing about four ounces. Turkeys do not grow rapidly at the start, but develop much quicker after three months of age.

POULTRY NOTES

It is hard to fatten a stunted chicken.

Boys and girls should be encouraged to raise poultry.

Wet feet are just as bad for hens as they are for folks.

The hen that lays 150 eggs in a year is doing mighty good laying.

For the city market there is nothing between the broiler and roaster.

Every week there should be a fresh supply of clean, fine earth in the dust box.

No wonder some men's hens never weigh anything. The lice have just about carried them away.

Nobody wants to buy a dirty egg, and the only way to keep the eggs clean is to keep the nests clean.

Middlings and cornmeal wet with skim milk make a fine forcing food for culs that are to be marketed.

Spraying a chicken house with 1 to 20 solution of lime-sulphur will effectually destroy all nits and lice.

An unruly or greedy rooster has no place in a chicken yard; the dinner table is the safest roost for him.

Well managed poultry is preferable to farm crops in that poultry will produce an income at all times of the year.

There is no such thing as egg laying type. There is but one true test of the layer, and that is by the aid of the trap nest.

TOOK THE PROPER ROUTE.

Fred Cooksey, 18, of Catlettsburg, landed in the U. S. navy by the water route, which incidentally, is a good way to land. He applied to a recruiting office at Cincinnati, for enlistment, but was found to be 2 pounds under weight. The water cooler caught his eye, and Cooksey downed nine glasses. Then he asked to be placed on the scales again. They tipped at 110 pounds, and he was accepted.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

What Crankiness Costs.

The following from one of our most valuable exchanges certainly contains more truth than poetry and is deserving of a place in our Home Circle Department.

An 18-year-old girl in New York, back from an adventuresome joyride with a lad of 18 in a stolen auto, to a woman reporter who visited her in the lock-up:

"It was just a picnic. We never thought of it as anything else. I understand my father says he is going to have me sent away. I don't care, I don't want to go home. The old man is so cross and cranky he gets on my nerves."

This girl was once a pretty, smiling promising baby, father's pet and mother's joy; a baby not foredoomed to be unloving and wayward. Something between the ages of 2 to 16 happened to explain her change of character.

Without knowing in detail the family history, couldn't you pretty safely hazard a guess on the basis of that one assertion: "The old man is so cross and cranky?"

The proper influence in a home is LOVE—patient, tender, long-suffering love. It is a child's right. The child who is denied it is defrauded. Just as it takes the warm sunshine to bring out the beauty of the flower, so the soul of a child, and especially the soul of the woman-child, must have the warmth of affection, continuous and never-failing, to develop the graces which make it clean and sweet.

We know not what cares, what sorrows, what aggravations, made this "old man cross and cranky." It may be we'd forgive him if we knew him. In any event, he's profoundly to be pitied, for clearly his crossness and his crankiness, robbing the daughter of the home joys which were her due, sent her to the bad.

Amidst the worries, the stress, the disappointment of life it is often hard to preserve a sweetened temper at home. But it is what the parent must do, or at least try to the limit to do, if the children are to have a fair chance.

Nature in her silent, beautiful way, teaches many lessons. She does not force a moral upon us. We may drink to her loveliness and take or leave the lesson as we please. A man must have something of the child in his heart to feel the splendor of the horizon, the magnificence of the stars, the mystery of the woods, the joyous dignity of fertile sunlit meadows; and baving the child's heart to feel, he will have the child's faith to see, and whatever his sorrow, nature shall heal it, whatever his perplexity nature shall solve it. Men have set their mark upon the woods and hills. They have divided the land and have said to the world, "This farm is mine." "Yonder woodland is yours," "the babbling brook and the beach-covered hillside belong to your neighbor," but the forest child of nature which chances that way without a penny in his pocket may have all the beauty and peace of this lovely landscape for the looking.

In this day of cheap literature the very best of reading matter is within reach of every family. The current magazines and the best of agricultural papers may be had at a trifling cost, and these should be found in every farm home. A comfortable sitting room made warm and light, should invite the children to spend their evenings by the fireside. Unless these things are furnished at home it is only natural that the young people should seek them elsewhere, and after an evening spent out amid life and gaiety boys and girls often return to their cold and uninviting home. We believe many a boy has formed his first resolve to quit the farm when crawling into a cold bed in a cold and chimney bedroom after he has spent an evening at a party or some scene of festivity in the city or village. Give the children plenty of home comforts and make the farm fireside the brightest and most interesting place on earth and the young people will learn to love the farm and to cling to it rather than to seek ephemeral joys of a life in town.

You can make home happy by bits of kindnesses and little courtesies.

Every man blessed with a good wife knows that a large measure of his success, usefulness and elevation is to be attributed to the companionship of his choice. It is not possible for all women to be learned or to keep peace in intellectual improvement with their husbands, but they can study to gain discretion and proper control of the tongue. If they temper their speech with charity, if they cultivate loving thoughts and express them in words of kindness and sympathy, they are sure to promote a spirit of harmony and good feeling in the home and in the social circle in which they move.

Let us teach our children to be lovers of the meadows and woods, the mountains, and of the whole earth. Students of all her moods, knowing that nature will be to them as Wordsworth the anchor of purest thought, the nurse, the guide, the guardian, of the heart, the soul, of the moral being.

Vitalizing The Country Church.

The address of Dr. M. B. McNutt at the 54th annual convention of the Ohio State Sunday School Association in session, on "Vitalizing the Country Church," was a gem, and we quote a few paragraphs of it that are well worth reading, viz.:

"Country people have left the farms in great number. In a large percentage of cases it is the farmer's wife that takes the family to town or city. While the farmer has all kinds of machinery to lighten his work, his wife has very few devices in the house for making her labor easier or for saving her strength. Her life is often a drudge. Many farmer's wives are still pumping water by hand and lugging it around in buckets. Christianity has not done all for a farmer's wife that it can do when it gives peace to her soul and then sends her to bed with the headache from pumping water by hand and lugging it around in buckets, when it might easily be drawn from pipes."

"We have, somehow, failed to connect religion and the church with these practical human interests, which so vitally concern our daily lives. Now if we would enlarge our conception of Christian work so as to include everything we do, and let the church concern itself with the whole of life, spending its life freely for the common good it would find its life, the more abundant life which Jesus brought to the world."

GOOD ROADS

DISTRIBUTE COST OF ROADS

Let Money Spent Be Levied Upon Assessed Valuation of State—New York Plan Favored.

Country roads should be built and maintained from the funds of the general public. No public road is of purely local importance; no community nor industry but is in some degree dependent upon the efficiency of all highways. Since the development of automobiles, more than half the traffic on the average country road is purely city traffic. Why should townships, for instance, be made to bear their equal share for road expense regardless of wealth and resources, when the roads to be built benefit neighboring communities and even distant cities as much, and sometimes more, than the immediate locality. Roads are the arteries and veins of commerce. Because some of them are remote from the heart of trade does not lessen their significance to the whole.

Let money spent for roads be levied upon the assessed valuation of the state, says the Farm and Home. In Illinois, for instance, 67 per cent. of the total taxable property is located in incorporated cities and towns. Should the 33 per cent. comprising country property bear all the burden for building and maintaining the highways? By means of state and county appropriations, or state and county bonds, or both, equitably divided, the road burden would be more fairly distributed. The New York plan of dividing the cost between state, county and town works very well and is probably as fair and just as any that could be devised.

TO TAX TOBACCO FOR ROADS

Representative Warburton of Washington Has Novel Plan to Raise $80,000,000 Yearly.

The constructing of a comprehensive system of national highways out of a tax imposed upon the consumers of tobacco is a proposition which Representative Warburton of Washington has embodied in the form of a bill introduced in the house. He proposes that a tax shall be imposed so light as not to be felt by the users of tobacco, but every puff of smoke from burning tobacco will represent a part of a system of highways.

The plan contemplates trunk lines connecting the capitals of the different states with the national capital at Washington and with each other and running to the different national parks. The cost of construction is to be paid out of a tax similar to that of 1879 on tobacco. It is calculated that the tax will raise $80,000,000 a year, or more than twice the amount of internal revenue now collected.

UNITED STATES GOOD ROADS

Estimated That Percentage of Improved Thoroughfares Gone Well Beyond Nine Per Cent.

In the past three years it is roughly estimated that the percentage of improved roads in the United States has gone well beyond 9 per cent. and possibly close to 10 per cent. It is estimated that if 20 per cent. of the public highways were improved—each highway being selected and improved with a view to the proportionate traffic upon it—a high degree of efficiency in highway transportation would be reached. It is figured that millions of dollars would be saved annually in the transportation of crops, the wear and tear on horses and vehicles, and in the minimizing of the waste in truck farming. Where roads are bad, the farmers frequently find it impossible to get their products to the shipping points and thus perishable products are wasted, perceptibly increasing the cost of living.

Eradication of Dandelion.

The best way to get rid of the dandelion pest is to devise some use for them. The moment they become valuable that moment it is going to require a lot of trouble to produce them.

Crossing is Harmful.

No flock owner can achieve success in the breeding of sheep, either for market or breeding purposes, if he resorts to constant crossing of two different breeds to improve his flock.

FOR SALE

Farm, Stock and Tools

I am offering for sale my farm of about 350 acres of land lying within three (3) miles of the city of Vanceburg, Ky., the County Seat of Lewis county. This farm contains a good six-room frame dwelling house, a new corn crib, chicken house, two large combination tobacco and stock barns and other necessary outbuildings. There are 15 or 20 acres of good bottom land, there are about 60 to 75 acres cleared land, about 25 acres of which is in grass. There is considerable timber on this land suitable for railroad ties and farm purposes. The uncleared land makes splendid summer pasture for cattle, and sheep and hogs will live in these woods with very little feed. Most of the land can be cultivated and produces splendid tobacco, corn, oats, potatoes, sorghum, cane and most all crops which are raised in this climate. There is some of the best fruit and berry land on this farm that can be found anywhere. The farm is well watered by never failing springs and running streams. There is one of the best wells of water within a few feet of the kitchen door that can be found anywhere in the county.

There is a splendid new school house on the farm which is also used for church purposes. There are 5 churches in the city of Vanceburg, which is only three miles away; also a splendid High School, which can be easily attended from the farm, as it is only 2 miles across by a bridge path to the school house. I will also include in this sale for the price named below two good work horses, all farm implements, consisting of one new turning plow, one new Avery double above plow, one hillside turning plow, one cutter plow, one single above plow, one spring wagon, two sets of work harness, single trees and all small tools now on the farm.

Considering the convenience of this land to the market, schools, churches, etc., I believe it is the greatest bargain ever offered in this county. The title is unquestionable.

The price for farm, stock and tools is $3,500. If you are interested, do not delay coming.

Write me when you will start from home.

He had been for some time suffering with throat trouble. He was accompanied by Tat Allen, who spent the summer with him.

Mrs. Laura Davidson has been seriously ill for a few days, but is somewhat improved at this writing. Tom Hardy, colored charged with

EDUCATORS MET HERE LAST WEEK.

The Sandy Valley Education Improvement League held its annual session at the First M. E. Church building here last Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. The most prominent educators of the state-at-large were present including Mr. J. G. Crabbe, of Richmond, State Supt. of Rural Schools T. J. Coates, Jay O'Daniel, of Louisville, W.B. Ward, of Paintsville, and many others. About five hundred teachers from various counties were also present.

A great many addresses were delivered upon the subject of the improvement of the conditions of education in the mountains, and it was but too strongly pointed out that the educational forces have centered their efforts upon the towns and have left the rural settlements practically without help in this respect. That more attention be directed toward these isolated settlements, where it is needed most, was the urgent advice of the league.

These addresses were supplemented by able speeches from men of prominence outside the profession. Mr. W. H. May, commonwealth attorney for Floyd-co., in a speech before the league, told of the Sandy Valley's experience with the Wobblies Law, and Mr. J. J. E. Buckingham, cashier of the Paintsville National Bank, also told how a bank account aids in the acquisition of an education.

The session was adjourned sine die at noon Saturday, and it has not yet been decided upon where the next session is to be held, but it will very probably hold in the city of Louisville for the next year.

COURT CLOSES.

The six weeks term of circuit court closed here last Saturday, and a special term of indefinite duration was convened by Judge J. F. Butler Wednesday.

At the regular term more than 170 cases were tried and disposed of, which, with the exception of the May term of this year, is an increase of about 40 per cent over the work of any former court held here during the past five years. The amount of the commonwealth's judgments was approximately $1700 and 331 new judgments were returned. Judge Butler left for Frankfort Sunday morning, but returned to Pikeville in time to convene the special term.

RUTH WARD VICTIM OF STRANGE DISEASE.

Little 4-year-old Ruth Ward is a victim of scleroderma, a disease little known to the medical science and sometimes called "hide-bound." The child became affected by the disease last week, and it was feared she had diphtheria, but a careful examination by four different physicians established the fact that it is scleroderma. The little girl does not appear to be in the least inconvenienced by the affection and goes about her play the same as formerly. But the skin all over the body has become hard and contracted as if it would burst open.

The little girl was taken to Louisville by her father Tuesday morning. She is being treated at the University.

Letcher County News Notes.

WHITESBURG, KY., Oct. 21.—As the November election draws near interest continues to increase and the usual hot contest for a number of the county offices is going to result. A large per cent of the people of the county are disgusted at the corruption generally practiced at the polls and will this year make a strong preconcerted effort for pure clean election. The last session of the grand jury of Letcher-co. made but a partial investigation into the illegal vote traffic, the buying and selling of votes, resulting in several indictments being returned, a number of which were against election officers, some of whom were among the best known men in the county. This year it seems that most of the candidates have pledged themselves together in a body for a clean election in November, O. for a cleaner political era when the honest poor man will stand on an equal with the rich!

The Knott County Fair was held at Hladman the past week, and from the large and varied exhibits and the unusually large attendance it was one of the most successful ever held there. Knott county is offering every other mountain county an example of pluck and energy—an example they badly need, and it is hoped that Letcher and other

OYSTER SUPPER.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will give their annual Halloween Oyster supper at the church Thursday evening, Oct. 30. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come to eat oysters and have a good time.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Supt. E. V. Hall, of Floyd county, Sam J. Mayo, German Vance, Clyde Burchett, Ed Allen and Porter Mayo, all of Prestonsburg, attended the annual session of the Sandy Valley Education Improvement League held here last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Stella Ferguson, C. E. McWharter, T. H. May, Martha and Ella Hunt and a number of others attended from Ashland.

Judge J. F. Butler and J. J. Moore went to Frankfort Sunday.

James P. Salisbury, Thos May and attorney W. W. Williams, of Prestonsburg were here last Saturday.

Rev. G. J. Daniel, of Chaplin, Ky., but originally from Australia, has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Pikeville.

U. S. Deputy J. M. Potter captured James Watkins and Will Ravens, two alleged "shiners," the latter a negro, near Jenkins last week. They registered with uncle Joe Ramsey upon their arrival here.

Politics is boiling in the kettle at Pikeville. Every candidate upon every ticket is confident of his certain success, but of course some of these must taste disappointment. It is well settled that party lines have been destroyed, so that the democrat or republican party is no longer thought of, or rarely ever mentioned. More crossing the ballot will occur this election than ever before seen in Pike-co. This means that no party may hope for a complete victory, but the greatest measure of success will attend the side that has largest number of good and honorable men for its candidates.

Sam Saad spent several days of last week down the river. He returned Tuesday evening.

H. Williamson, of Williamson, W. Va., was in town Monday.

A heavy fall of snow, covering the ground in some places to a depth of one and two inches, was reported by wire from Shelby creek Tuesday morning.

Otto Gartin, of Louisville was here attending the meeting of the educational league last Saturday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Griffith is very sick.

Roy Keel, Sam Caudill and two other young men went to Jenkins to work with the Consolidation Coal company.

Jo. M. Davidson, of Prestonsburg was a business caller here Tuesday.

W. J. Flaherty and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Jenkins were here stopping at the Pike hotel Tuesday.

Attorney J. J. Moore returned Monday night from a professional visit to Catlettsburg and Ashland.

least 100 small students of the Graded School, with Prof. Woodson, joined in the parade. It is the purpose of the Junior Order to present every school in the county with an American Flag and steps will be taken immediately looking to that end.

A. Dietz, of the Dietz Construction Co., Mt. Sterling, is here completing plans for the immediate construction of the $25,000 home of the new First National Bank of Whitesburg, work having already been started on the foundation of the building. The Felix J. Fields business building in East Whitesburg, with the Lewis Wholesale Grocery Co.'s building, are both rapidly going up, while in the main part of the little city building is active, and much money is being expended on street improvement, the laying of concrete walks along all the principal streets. Whitesburg is rapidly putting on airs.

Revenue Collector C. L. Fuson, with Deputy Marshal's John Adlington and R. D. Holbrook, returned here from the Jenkins-McRoberts section of the county, having in custody several moonshiners and bootleggers all of whom were tried before U. S. Commissioner John W. Hiale.

Mr. Fuson is a new man here, having fairly started upon his duties, but he is rapidly gaining favor with the people and ever on the alert for the violator of Uncle Sam's laws. With a large percent of foreign population, many of them are lawless, live-wire revenue officers are needed in Letcher-co. Mr. Fuson and his deputies are the right men in the right place.

Recognizing that Letcher is the banner mountain county State Commissioner Newman decided a day or so ago that she should have a Farmer's Institute this year and detailed Mr. Clayton, an expert authority on farm topics, to report at Whitesburg immediately for the purpose of conducting a two-days institute beginning Monday, Oct. 20. Mr. Clayton responded promptly and at this time is conducting one of the most successful Farmer's Institutes ever held in Letcher-co.

There is greater interest manifested this year and a much larger attendance. Mr. Clayton expressed himself as confident that Letcher would get an institute every year hereafter.

Ira Field, Jr., of Harlan, with other parties, was here a few days ago making arrangements for the early installation of an electric light plant in Whitesburg. It is understood that arrangements were completed and that the plant is forthcoming, the machinery necessary having been ordered. Within 60 days it is expected that the plant will be in operation.

The hustling Commercial Club of Whitesburg is also behind a project to have works established here in the very near future. With all the new business and improvements taking place in Whitesburg there is no reason why a light plant and water works should not be a success.

The construction of the six miles of model roadway from Mayking via Sargent to Kona, Mouth of Boone's Fork, was started yesterday and will be rushed as rapidly as possible to completion. Several hundred hands will be put to work. This is a most important piece of road.

Mr. E. L. Pope, Assistant to the Auditor of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was here last week, checking up the affairs with Agent I. B. Fields. Mr. Pope found the work of Mr. Fields thoroughly satisfactory. He went from here to McRoberts.

A party of high up officials of the L. & N. made a tour of inspection of the new extension of the L. & N. between Jackson and McRoberts Friday, in the party were Assistant Supervisor Nickerson, General Passenger Agent Chas. Scott and others. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with the splendid progress of the ballasting work all along the extension.

Mr. N. M. Webb, Editor and owner of the Whitesburg Mountain Eagle, left yesterday for a business trip to Louisville and other points out in the State.

Mrs. Lydia J. Webb, of Portland, Tenn., arrived Saturday to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Webb at Mayking. She will remain for several weeks.

Dr. Bert C. Beach arrived from Louisville Saturday, where he underwent a very serious operation. The operation, however, was successful.

Mrs. Mueller says: "I keep Peru in the house constantly. When I am not feeling well I take a few doses. It always restores."

Mrs. Mueller's story of her experience with Peru fully explains why she always keeps Peru on hand. A few years ago she was very sick. The trouble seemed to be the stomach and liver. She suffered great pain. Was unable to get anything to help her. She was growing weaker and weaker. She became tired of life.

Somebody suggested that she write to the Peru Co. She did so. Through their advice she began to use Peru. In a letter from her at this time she says: "Through the use of Peru I have regained my health. I took only a bottle and a half when I was able to sleep and eat again and my nervousness disappeared." No wonder Mrs. Mueller keeps Peru in the house. Under similar circumstances Peru would be in every house in the land.

Any one taking Peru ought to have a free copy of the "His of Life." Address Peru Co., Columbus, Ohio. People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peru Tablets.

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED.

Mother! Don't hesitate! If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.
